Bistro Hebog stands on the bank of the river Colwyn which is sourced from the south-western flanks of Snowdon (Yr Wyddfa ) and joins the River Glaslyn 200m meters downstream from here. An abundance of wildlife can be seen from our terrace whilst enjoying lunch or sipping our great coffee .... or our selection of local ales and cider. Dippers, (Trochwr or Bronwen Ddŵr), Kingfishers (Glas y Dorlan ), Herons (Crëyr Glas) and several wading birds (hwyaid) forage here all year round.

Several countryside walks can be enjoyed from Beddgelert, most of which start just over the adjacent bridge. Turn immediately to your left, passing the gallery and famous Woodcraft shop (well worth a visit). Turn right and follow the path that runs alongside the river on your left down to the renowned grave of Gelert, the famous dog. After visiting the grave, continue to follow the river downstream to the next bridge, across which a path will lead you up-stream back to the village.

Moel Hebog is a mountain not to be missed whilst in Snowdonia, elevating to 2,569ft with views over Cardigan Bay and the magnificent Nant Gwynant south of Beddgelert.

There are several paths up nearby Snowdon (Yr Wyddfa) - the nearest from Bistro Hebog is the Rhyd Ddu path north of here, and the Watkin path to the south. Remember, it's the highest mountain in England and Wales so the correct footwear and proper planning is essential!!

We hope you enjoyed your visit to Bistro Hebog and that you will call again when in Beddgelert.

Have a nice day and thank you!!
